MATTJOY A LEADER.

Democrats Choose Him as the Man To Guide the Negro End of That Party.

That J. J. Mattjoy is the choice of the leading democrats for leader in this state is attested by the following correspondence:

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 22, 1919.

My Dear Mattjoy:

Not hearing from you, and receiving a letter from Talton, I was at a loss to understand. You will remember 2 years ago while in St. Louis on business, you spoke of having a Convention and I promised all the aid possible. You understand the situation in Kansas City and to you I trust. Kindly give me some information on the coming convention. Don't you want to head the new organization? If not, advise. If you don't want it, then I am for Talton. You can have the St. Louis vote. I am trying to arrange business so as to be on deck. I have a base ball meeting in Chicago on the 20th. Do you think the Convention will last over two days? If not I will sure be there. We will send at least sixteen. Ten men and six ladies. Let me hear from you and for heaven sake don't wait a month to write. Best wishes,
Sincerely yours,
CHAS. A. MILLS.

DEMOCRATIC STATE COMMITTEE OF MISSOURI.
Frank Armstrong, Director.
November 25, 1919.

J. J. Mattjoy, State Committeeman Fifth Congressional District, Negro Democratic State Committee of Missouri, 1510 East 18th Street, Kansas City, Missouri.

J. J. Mattjoy:—
You have been duly appointed as State Committeeman for the Fifth Congressional District, representing the Negro Democratic State Committee of Missouri.

A meeting of your committee will be held at Sedalia, Wednesday, December 18, 1919, for the purpose of perfecting a state organization of your committee. You are expected to attend this meeting.

Bring this letter, which will be your credential.

BEN M. NEALE, Chairman.
J. L. SHEPHERD, Secretary.
FRANK ARMSTRONG, Executive Secretary.

DEMOCRATIC STATE COMMITTEE OF MISSOURI.
J. L. Shepherd, Secretary.
December 2, 1919.

J. J. Mattjoy, 1510 E. 18th St., Kansas City, Mo.

Dear Mattjoy:—
Just this day we have received notification from Sedalia that a ban on public meetings has been placed there, and that we should postpone our, or rather the Democratic Negroes proposed meeting for December 17th.

We know that this news will be as disappointing to you folks as it is to us. But, tell the loyal Democrats of your race that this postponement will not be a great while and that state organization to be held at Sedalia will mean more to them than any other even that has ever occurred in their political history.

We are telling the world that the Democratic Negroes of Missouri are chanting:

Shades of Jefferson and Washington
Symbols of Democracy—
Foes of autocracy—
Go on, and we will follow thee
To the last gasp—
With truth and loyalty.

Very truly yours,
Democratic State Committee
J. L. Shepherd, Frank Armstrong,
P. S. We are sending a copy of this letter to Dr. Howard Smith.

PLATTE CITY, MO.

Sunday was a red letter day in Zion, ... Rev. T. R. Sayles preached two soul stirring sermons. The collection was good. $44.20. ... The Thanksgiving dinner and supper were grand success. ... Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Anderson of Kansas City spent the week end with the latter's mother, Mrs. Lizzie Nichols. ... Mrs. Anderson returned home Sunday afternoon from her brothers in Kansas City bringing back with her a little niece, Emma Jane Green. ... Miss Mary Jane Taylor, Mr. Harry Willis and Wm. Kettner were the dinner guest of Mrs. Josie Reed Sunday. ... Mrs. Annie Angel of Kansas City spent several days with her mother and father. Mr. and Mrs. McDaniel. ... Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Saunders spent Thanksgiving in Kansas City. ... Miss Mamie McParker and Dorothy Fields left Saturday morning for a visit in Iowa. ... Mr. and Mrs. D. George lost their baby Monday. We extend them sympathy. ... Mrs. Minnie Williams is ill. ... Read the Sun and get all the news.

FORT SCOTT, KANSAS.

By Mrs. Katherine D. Tillman.
Mrs. Helen Wilkerson is quite ill. ... Mrs. Joe Woods of Kansas City, Kas., spent Thanksgiving with her sister, Mrs. Bettie Kinnard. ... Union services were held at Wayman A. M. E. Church by Revs. Tillman, Beatty and Young. The sermon was preached by Rev. Beatty. An excellent dinner was served by Stewardess Board No. 1. Dinner was sent to the sick and needy by the ministers. Miss Armistead directed a splendid program at night. The M. P. A. Club held a rousing meeting Wednesday, at the home of Mrs. J. M. Bassett on First Street. Donations of money were sent to five needy persons and to the N. A. A. C. P., and N. A. C. W. C., to fight lynching and to aid in Reconstruction. Mrs. G. M. Tillman was elected secretary. A delightful luncheon was served by the hostess, Mrs. Beulah Kelmley and children spent Thanksgiving in Mapleton. ... Mrs. Whitener, Mrs. J. E. Bassett, Mrs. Cora Copeland, Mrs. Anna Brown and Prof. E. J. Hawkins were among those who entertained family groups and friends Thanksgiving. ... Rev. Young is out of town. ... The executive board of Plaza Parent-Teacher Ass'n, met with the President Mrs. G. M. Tillman Monday to plan the year's work. ... Miss Armistead and Miss Reeves of Plaza were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Tillman Sunday at o'possum dinner. ... Little Elizabeth Curtis is ill. ... Dr. J. D. Barksdale will preach at Wayman Tuesday night. ... The East Side Trustee Helpers will have a Plaza recital at the home of Mrs. Jennie Miller Thursday, December 11. ... Allen League was largely attended Sunday. The meeting was led by Miss Beatrice Reeves.

COMMUNITY SERVICE.

Last week was a busy one at the Community Center. On Thanksgiving Day a delightful luncheon was served to the ex-service men. In the evening a number of young people came in and spent a pleasant time in dancing and singing and general social mix. ... Because of the Thanksgiving festivities, the regular Thursday night meeting of the Wayne Miner Post of American Legion held its regular meeting on last Tuesday night at which time a large number were present and among those uniting was Capt. Jas. R. Love recently returned from France. ... On last Wednesday evening a few members of the Old Settlers Club met at the Center for the regular meeting, but because of the necessity of conserving fuel were unable to hold the meeting as planned. However, we hope that as soon as there is a change in the fuel conditions all meetings will be resumed. ... The Book Lovers Club held their regular meeting at the Center on last Saturday afternoon. A very interesting program was carried out and the Book Lovers promised their loyal support in helping the Center to successfully carry on its work. ... On Saturday afternoon a number of the younger members of the Lincoln High Alumnae met to discuss means by which they could help foster the work at the Center. Watch for the play which they plan to put on. ... Because of the shortage of coal the Center has been compelled to discontinue all public meetings. However as soon as conditions change we shall be glad for the general public to make the Center their home.

A NEEDED BUSINESS ENTERPRISE.

One of the most needed business enterprises for the race was recently opened at 1110 E. 19th street under the firm name of the Cain-Sylvester Realty Company. This company has for its object the opening up of avenues of employment to boys and girls of the race who are coming out of school each year without jobs of any kind; the issuing of fire insurance on property and sick and accident insurance.

Mr. Cain, who is treasurer of the Jamison Temple C. M. E. church is well known having been a resident here for 19 years; and Mr. Sylvester who comes from Memphis, Tenn., has had 20 years' experience in the insurance business. There is no doubt but that Kansas Cityans will appreciate the opening of this establishment and get in touch with these deserving men who will accord them every courtesy in each business transaction.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving memory of our dear wife and mother, Lena Canterbury, who passed away one year ago December 3, 1918:

What is home without you, mother? What are all the joys we meet? Since your loving smiles no longer Greet the coming of our feet?

The days are long, the nights dreary, And times roll slowly on; Oh, how few are life's pleasures Since you, dear mother, have gone. Sadly missed by husband, Joseph Canterbury and Children.

OLD CITIZEN PASSES AWAY.

Mrs. Mary E. Bailey, widow of the late Samuel R. Bailey, for years and at the time of his death, principal of Lincoln (now the W. W. Yates) school died Thursday, November 27, at her late residence, 1415 Lydia Avenue.

About a year ago, she was stricken with paralysis which partly disabled her and later terminated in leakage of the heart. She was born in Kentucky, 58 years ago, reared at Lebanon, O., and educated at Berea College, Kentucky, in which state she was married.

The funeral obsequies were held last Sunday at the St. Augustine P. E. Church, Father Harry Rahming officiating. She was buried in Highland Cemetery in the family lot where reposed the bodies of her husband and daughter Alberta Thompkins. The deceased leaves an only relative, a brother, Prince Albert Stants of Ohio, who with his wife were present at the bedside of their sister during her last hours. They will remain in the city a few days before returning to their home at Lebanon, O.

Mr. Stants will inherit by descent the several properties of the late Mrs. Bailey in this city.
